

A hand-drawn map of Ecuador on a green background. The map features a black outline of the country's coastline. A horizontal line crosses the map, with the coordinates "S.34°41' W56°9'" written below it. To the left of the line is a drawing of a sun with rays and a sailing ship. To the right of the line is a drawing of a fish. A large, irregular red shaded area is located in the lower right portion of the map, representing the Amazon region. The word "Ecuador" is written at the bottom left of the map.
